

SAV PARTNERS' WINTER 2011 MEETING

NC Estuarium, Natureroom
223 East Water St.
Washington, NC 27889

February 17, 2011
12:30 pm

Agenda

Welcome

Approval of minutes

Modifications to agenda

Subcommittees - members and needs

Mapping/Monitoring

- Update on imagery photo-interpretation – Dean Carpenter

Restoration

- Review of Restoration subcommittee white paper
- USACE/Jacksonville SAV work
- ECSU CRFL project - Genetic Diversity and Tissue Culture Techniques for Restoration of Submerged Aquatic Vegetation – Maurice Crawford

Assessment

- Assessment needs

Policy/Outreach

- Priorities, products

Directions to the North Carolina Estuarium

The Estuarium is located at 223 E. Water Street, on the Pamlico River waterfront in downtown Washington, NC.

Free streetside parking available and in parking lot across the street.

Traveling on U.S. 17 from NORTH of Washington (from Williamston, Elizabeth City, etc.):

*NOTE: A new U.S. 17 Bypass around Washington was opened in April 2010.

Take U.S. 17 Business (a left turn) as you near Washington

1. You will encounter several stoplights. U.S. 17 becomes Bridge Street inside the Washington city limits.
1. Turn left onto Main Street (the 8th and last stoplight you meet before crossing the Pamlico River bridge).
2. Just before the first stoplight on Main, bear right onto Stewart Parkway.
3. Follow Stewart Parkway for 3 blocks, Estuarium will be on right.

Traveling on U.S. 17 from SOUTH of Washington (from New Bern, Jacksonville, etc.):

*NOTE: A new U.S. 17 Bypass around Washington was opened in April 2010.

To follow directions below, take U.S. 17 BUSINESS before reaching Chocowinity.

1. Follow 17 Business through Chocowinity and across Pamlico River Bridge.
2. At foot of bridge (Washington side), bear right onto Main Street, which is the first stoplight you will encounter after crossing the Pamlico.
3. Just before the first stoplight on Main, bear right onto Stewart Parkway.
4. Follow Stewart Parkway for 3 blocks, Estuarium will be on right.

Traveling on U.S. 264 from WEST of Washington (from Wilson, Raleigh, etc.):

From Greenville:

1. Follow 264 to Washington. NOTE: U.S. 264 becomes 5th Street inside the Washington city limits.
2. After encountering several stoplights you will reach a light at Market Street. Turn right from 5th onto Market Street (at Fire Station).
3. Follow Market for 6 blocks until it dead-ends at Water Street. Turn left.
4. Estuarium will be one block ahead on right.

Traveling on U.S. 264 from EAST of Washington (from Belhaven, Hyde County, etc.):

NOTE: U.S. 264 becomes John Small Avenue and then 5th Street inside the Washington City limits.

1. Turn left from 5th Street onto Market Street (Fire Station is across the intersection).
2. Follow Market 6 blocks until it dead-ends at Water Street. Turn left.
3. Estuarium will be one block ahead on right.